ARTICLE 7:

This corporation is organized as a church for Christian worship and evangelism, being organized exclusively for religious, charitable, and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Its assets are to be utilized for evangelical purposes in furthering the Gospel of Jesus Christ, for teaching the Word of God as revealed in the Old and New Testaments, and for the nurture of those professing faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

This corporation has the power to receive, accept, acquire, own, hold title to, care for, manage, sell, dispose of or mortgage according to law, all of the real and personal property which has been or may hereafter be given to, contributed for or otherwise acquired by or for the church corporation.

No member shall be entitled to benefit personally from the assets or income of the Corporation except for payment for services rendered as an employee of the Corporation. If at any time the Corporation is to be dissolved or assets are to be disposed of, the assets shall not be distributed to the members, but rather after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the Corporation, the remaining assets shall be distributed to a non-profit fund, foundation or corporation, which is Christian and evangelical, which has established its tax exempt status under Section 501 (C) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE 8: Governing Persons: Corporate President, Corporate Treasurer, and Corporate Secretary.
